Dear Friends

October, 2013

We are grateful for our teachers, they inspire our students. Just like these quotes tell us: the mediocre teacher tells, the good teacher explains, the superior teacher demonstrates, the great teacher inspires!

It takes a team work of your continued support, our effort and our faithful teachers to inspire these children to learn. You have helped us make a difference. Thank you!

Although the world is full of suffering, it is full also of promises for overcoming it. –
Helen Keller

As we get older, our vision should improve. Not our vision of earth, but our vision of heaven. – Max Lucado

Good thots:

According to legend, there was once an abbey which had a very generous abbot. No beggar was ever turned away, and he gave all he could to the needy. The strange thing was that the more he gave away, the richer the abbey seemed to become.

When the old abbot died, he was replaced by a new one with exactly the opposite nature—he was mean and stingy. One day an elderly man arrived at the monastery, saying that he had stayed there years before, and was seeking shelter again. The abbot turned the visitor away, saying the abbey could no longer afford its former hospitality.

“Our monastery cannot provide for strangers like it used to when we were wealthy,” he said. “No one seems to make gifts towards our work nowadays.”

“Ah, well,” said the stranger, “I think that is because you banished two brothers from the monastery.”

“I don't think we ever did that,” said the puzzled abbot.

“Oh, yes,” was the reply. “They were twins. One was called ‘Give’ and the other, ‘It shall be given unto you.’ You banished ‘Give,’ so his brother decided to go as well.”—Author unknown
